On September 21, 2011, Dr. Alexandre Vieira presented a lecture titled "Craniofacial Anomalies and Cancer Susceptibility" as a continuing education seminar to the Board of Directors of the Dental Society of Western Pennsylvania (DSWP). This is one of the ongoing collaborations between the School of Dental Medicine and The Dental Society of Western Pennsylvania, a component society of the Pennsylvania Dental Association currently serving the eight counties of Pennsylvania's 10th District. DSWP was founded in 1881 to encourage the improvement of public health, to advocate the profession of dentistry, and to embody the interest of both the professional members and the public.
